

Halstead Town Council

Scheme of Delegation

Introduction

The Council's Scheme of Delegation authorises the Clerk to the Council, Responsible Finance Officer and Standing Committees to act with delegated authority in specific circumstances detailed below.

The power to delegate functions by local councils is set out in the Local Government Act 1972 s101.

This document is presented to clarify the manner in which Halstead Town Council has delegated its powers and the authority to spend.

Proper Officer

The Town Clerk shall be the Proper Officer of the Council and as such is specifically authorised to:

- Receive declarations of acceptance of office;
- Receive and record notices disclosing personal and prejudicial interests;
- Undertake the day-to-day administration of the Council;
- Sign notices or other documents on behalf of the Council;
- Update and manage the Council's website and social media;
- Receive copies of by-laws made by the Local Authority;
- Certify copies of by-laws made by the Town Council; and
- Acknowledge and respond to all complaints regarding the Council.

The Clerk may from time to time delegate functions to other staff members. Such delegated actions shall be in accordance with Standing Orders, Financial Regulations and this Scheme of Delegation and in line with directions given by the Council from time to time.

Responsible Financial Officer (RFO)

The RFO to the Council is responsible for the Council's accounting procedures and financial records and is accountable for the proper administration of its finances, in line with the current Accounts and Audit Regulations and the Council's adopted Financial Regulations.

The functions and duties of the RFO are set out in the job description for the post and cannot be delegated.
