To consider one further month of rent holiday for the Empire theatre

The Empire Theatre has been unable since March to put on any events which bring in income, apart from Bingo. They have over the past few months had roof repairs and internal redecoration done, following a leak, and are currently installing their new screen. They should be ready to go with the programme of events planned for December.

Recommendation: that HTC approves a further rent holiday for November for the Empire Theatre, on the understanding that they will be able to resume activities and the paying of rent in December.
