To consider traffic management for the procession

The December procession down the High Street has grown to around 1000 participants over the 50 years it has been running. HTC has been advised, due to the risks involved, and the action necessitated by Martyn's law for crowd control at large events both indoors and outdoors, that a traffic management company must be used to close the roads and manage the closures.

After much research, 3 quotes have been obtained to provide this service:

Quote 1: £1665 + Vat

Quote 2: £2871.86 + Vat

Quote 3:

Recommendation : that HTC selects quote 1
